

Changed Choices is seeking sponsors.

Do you believe in second chances for women impacted by incarceration?

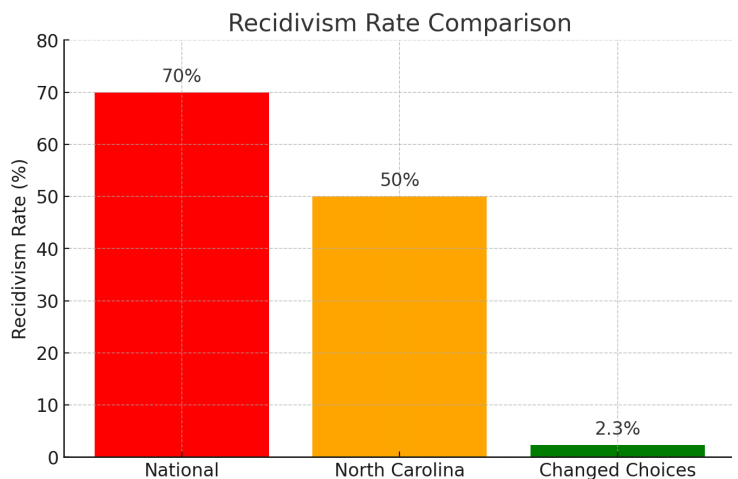

Join us in making Journey to Freedom 2025 a success.

Changed Choices empowers currently and recently incarcerated women to achieve lasting, positive change through programming and personalized mental, emotional, physical, and spiritual support.

Our annual Journey to Freedom walk raises money for programming and raises awareness of the hurdles women face as they return to community from prison.

Event participants will have the opportunity to hear directly from formerly incarcerated women about the barriers they faced, overcame, and continue to face.
